

Cancer Guard

100% cash payout for any stage of cancer

Keeping life on track — even through recovery

Today, more people than ever are living through and recovering from cancer with the right care and support. Even so, practical concerns can add up during treatment, such as time away from work, ongoing bills and out-of-pocket expenses. If you have both young and elderly family members depending on you, the need for additional financial support becomes even more important.

Cancer Guard is a regular premium term plan which offers a 100% cash payout upon diagnosis of cancer, regardless of stage. The lump sum is yours to use during recovery, whether to replace lost income, cover cancer-related drugs not fully paid for under other medical plans, arrange additional care at home, or seek specialised treatment overseas.

This gives you the financial flexibility to protect your savings and the lifestyle you have worked hard to build, so you can focus on getting better while maintaining stability for your family.

Why Cancer Guard

100% cash payout — even for early-stage diagnosis

Receive a lump sum payout of 100% of your sum assured upon diagnosis of early, intermediate or late stage of cancer. Use it to support treatment needs and everyday family expenses during recovery.

Additionally, get 5% lump sum payout of the basic sum assured in the event of death, if no claim has been made for cancer.

Affordable premiums that do not increase with age

Choose coverage of S$100,000, S$200,000, or S$350,000, with policy terms up to age 65, 75 or 85. Enjoy level premiums throughout your policy term<sup>1</sup>, giving you the certainty of fixed payments that fit easily into your long-term budget.

Simple, hassle-free application

Complete your application in minutes — online or through your financial representative.
