[1] For all Qualifying Plans, eligibility for the Reward will be based on the Qualifying Regular Annual Premium which refers to the total premiums payable, including premiums for attaching cash-paying riders (if any), for the first policy year based on yearly premium payment frequency as reflected in the policy illustration (regardless of the policy's selected premium frequency).

[2] For GREAT Life Multiplier, GREAT Life Advantage 4 and Cancer Guard policies, the Reward will be determined according to the total premiums payable for the first policy year based on the policy's selected premium payment frequency, including premium loadings (if any) and excluding GST (if any).

For GREAT Critical Cover: Complete and GREAT Critical Cover: Top 3 CIs, the Reward will be determined according to the total premiums payable for the first policy year based on the policy's selected premium payment frequency, excluding product discounts (if any), premium loadings (if any) and GST (if any).

The above is for general information only. It is not a contract of insurance. The terms, conditions and exclusions of the qualifying insurance plans and the 'Protect your family's future with confidence' Promotion are specified in the policy contract and Great Eastern's website respectively.

As buying a life insurance policy is a long-term commitment, an early termination of the policy usually involves high costs and the surrender value, if any, that is payable to you may be zero or less than the total premiums paid.

You may wish to seek advice from a financial adviser before making a commitment to purchase this product. If you choose not to seek advice from a financial adviser, you should consider whether this product is suitable for you. Buying health insurance products that are not suitable for you may impact your ability to finance your future healthcare needs.
