

NOTICE

CLASS OF INSURANCE : All Relevant Fire Policy Coverage
SUBJECT : IMPACT OF MOVEMENT CONTROL ORDER

---

The Movement Control Order (MCO) issued by the Government under the Prevention and Control of Infectious Diseases Act 1988 (“PCID Act 1988”) was enforced from 18 March 2020 and has now been extended to 28 April 2020. This has effectively put all sectors except for essential services under lockdown with restrictions on movements within Malaysia.

As this is a mandatory lockdown upon a governmental order beyond the control of policyholders, we hereby confirm that all the relevant policy coverage, that are conditioned on the premise/dwelling/construction site being occupied, will not be affected by the restrictions imposed by the MCO until it is being lifted.

This notice is however not applicable to premises/construction sites unoccupied prior to or not related to the MCO.

We wish to advise all policyholders concerned the importance of ensuring that their premises remain intact and to take all reasonable precautions to safeguard the premises/construction sites during the MCO period though the above policy condition is being exempted, all policyholders should at least take the following precautions:-

- a. Locking the premises/construction sites from any unauthorized entry.
- b. Stocks should be kept in the designated storage area(s), work in progress or working materials should be cleared or temporarily moved to the storage area(s).
- c. Stocks should not be left in the open space/yard.
- d. To take all reasonable and practicable actions to protect electrical plants/production plants/refrigeration facilities.
- e. To maintain fire-fighting facilities and burglar alarms system and ensure functionality at all times.
- f. Electrical office equipment, gadgets and appliances must be switched off to avoid overheating.
- g. Enforcing non-smoking policy to all security guards patrolling the premises/construction sites.

Thank you.
