² All cancer stages refer to the diagnosis of Early, Intermediate or Major Cancer. Cancer payouts vary according to the plan type chosen. Exclusions apply. Refer to product summary for more details.

³ The premium amount is determined at the age of entry and does not increase with your age. However, the premium rates are not guaranteed and may be adjusted based on future experience of the plan. Adjusted rates, if any, will be advised prior to policy renewals.

All ages specified refer to age next birthday.

This is only product information provided by us. You may wish to seek advice from a qualified adviser before buying the product. If you choose not to seek advice from a qualified adviser, you should consider whether the product is suitable for you. Buying health insurance products that are not suitable for you may impact your ability to finance your future healthcare needs. If you decide that the policy is not suitable after purchasing the policy, you may terminate the policy in accordance with the free-look provision, if any, and the insurer may recover from you any expense incurred by the insurer in underwriting the policy. It is usually detrimental to replace an existing accident and health plan with a new one. A penalty may be imposed for early plan termination and the new plan may cost more, or have less benefits at the same cost.
