Protecting your business

As a business owner, you want to ensure that the company you have built will continue for generations to come. It is essential to safeguard your efforts with a contingency plan to cope with any unexpected interruption. Prestige Term and Prestige Term Plus are tools you can use to help ensure the uninterrupted success and continuity of your business by preparing for the following circumstances:

Loss of a key executive

The loss of a key executive could potentially translate to disruption in your business, which may affect cash flow. The insurance proceeds from Prestige Term or Prestige Term Plus will provide you with a lump sum payout to help tide your business over while you search for the right replacement.

Loss of a business partner

The demise of a business partner will result in a transfer of business ownership to his beneficiaries who may not be suitable or interested in running the business. Instead of liquidating your personal assets to raise capital, let Prestige Term or Prestige Term Plus provide you with the required funds to buy over your partner's shares.
